CALL TO ORDER

Chair Pfeiffer called the meeting to order at 6:30 p.m.

PUBLIC COMMENT

No one spoke during the Public Comment period.

Presentation from John Reimer, Assistant Director, Dane County Lane & Water Resources regarding County dredging project in Yahara River.

John Reimer spoke regarding the sediment removal and purpose of, in the Yahara Chain of Lakes. He explained the process and answered many questions from the attendees. There was extensive further discussion which followed.

Presentation from Dan Glynn, Director, Stoughton Parks & Recreation regarding proposed Yahara River Park Project and dam removal.

Mayor Tim Swadley from the City of Stoughton thanked everyone for inviting him and Dan Glynn to the meeting and for the opportunity to give this presentation. He apologized if anyone felt they have not been provided adequate information. He values his surrounding town neighbors. Meetings regarding this project have been posted on the city website, information has been provided in the newspaper, etc. He hopes at the end of tonight's presentation, people will have a different view. He noted that public officials' jobs are not easy. The project has been going on since 2017. He then turned it over to Stoughton Parks & Recreation Director Dan Glynn to give the presentation. After the presentation, he opened it up for questions. There was a lengthy question and answer period and further discussion. Residents shared concerns.

Chairman Pfeiffer thanked Mayor Swadley, Parks & Recreation Director Dan Glynn, and John Reimer for attending this meeting, answering questions, and giving the presentation.
